Geneva, April 1st, 2025

Media Alert For Immediate Release Watches and Wonders Geneva 2025 Official Inauguration

The official inauguration of Watches and Wonders Geneva 2025 took place this morning at Palexpo-Geneva, in the presence of Federal Councillor Guy Parmelin, representatives of economic and political authorities of the City and Canton of Geneva, as well as the CEOs of the 60 exhibiting brands.

The ceremony opened with a speech by Federal Councillor Guy PARMELIN, head of the Department of Economic Affairs, Education and Research (EAER). He declared: "Dual training is part of Switzerland's competitiveness. It benefits directly to the watchmaking industry, that combines tradition and spirit of innovation", adding, "Switzerland must continuously develop its professional training system to remain a country of innovation and a dynamic economy."

Cyrille VIGNERON, President of the Watches and Wonders Geneva Foundation, mentioned: "With my colleagues of the Watches and Wonders Foundation, we believe that our passion for the extraordinary should be shared as broadly as possible. The salon is a wonderful expression of that passion, by revealing the vibrant living tradition of watchmaking."

The inauguration featured the artwork of Stéphane GALIENNI, co-founder of Balistik Art, showcasing how artificial intelligence contributes to art and culture.

The ceremony ended with a ribbon-cutting ceremony, attended by the official authorities and CEOs of the 60 exhibiting brands.

ABOUT WATCHES AND WONDERS GENEVA FOUNDATION

Created in September 2022 on the initiative of Rolex, Richemont and Patek Philippe, Watches and Wonders Geneva Foundation (WWGF) is a non-profit foundation based in Geneva. In 2024, three new key members, Chanel, Hermès and LVMH joined the founding members on the WWGF Board. Our mission is to promote watchmaking throughout the world by organizing watchmaking events, with Geneva as flagship event. Today, Watches and Wonders Geneva brings together the world's leading watchmakers, with 60 brands exhibiting in 2025 and 49,000 visitors at its last edition in April 2024.
